

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:26; sunset, 7:26.

Martin Hirada, 4749 Loomis, killed, and two other men wounded in fight at christening of John Bohopin's baby at 4808 Loomis st.

Mrs. Loretta Wendt, 3254 N. Oakley av., attempted suicide. Homesick for country. Revived.

Richard Huehn, 1620 Farrell av., pounded head of negro burglar he found in home. Hurt hands. Intruder escaped.

Mrs. Susan Nape, 463 W. Division, deserted by husband, tried to kill self with poison. Has 4 small children.

Former Judge Waterman fighting attempt of relatives to get conservator to take care of estate.

Body of Morris Sangernam, 2624 Mildred av., tailor, taken from lake. Believed suicide. Ill health.

Hyde Park police probing to find out what became of Davey, lost boy, who was deserted in Jackson park by woman and later claimed by two small girls.

L. Paterson, Grimsen, Ga., took a taxi ride with new-found friends. Misses $85 and watch.

Mrs. C. A. Morse, owner of bldg. at 6037 Blackstone av., had John McCauley, former tenant, arrested for arson.

Anna Kasal, 5 month, 1541 W. 18th, found suffocated in crib by mother.

Mrs. Angelina Mazzora, 744 N. Harding av., struck by stolen auto. Driver fled.

Catherine Andizewski, 9, died in hospital. Struck by keg thrown from truck which collided with street car.

Mrs. Alvin Jockich, 4506 Washington blvd., attacked thief she found in home. He got $500 and baby's bank.

Three men injured in collision between 2 autos and motorcycle at W. 67th and S. Halsted.

Victor Polakow, real estate, 100 S. Dearborn, badly hurt. Car turned turtle at Englewood, Ill.

Marie Reimer, 17, 3551 Wilson, seized by undertow. Rescued.

Ministers praised Mayor Thompson for strike proclamation recommending religious services should thank God for end of strike.

Hammond, Ind., police to arrest girls riding on rear of motorcycles with short skirts.

Dr. Chas. Reed of Wesley Memorial hospital and Dr. Jas. Vorhees of Cornell "U" announce success of regulating births. Call it "setting pendulum of clock to swinging."

Mrs. Mary Armor, famous dry speaker from Georgia, thrilled two big crowds at Coliseum.

T. Roosevelt to be in Chicago 2 hours tonight. On way from N. Y. to San Francisco to attend fair.

Woman told policeman she left $400 in purse on Chicago av. car. Police stopped all cars and found purse.

Geo. Swift, 205 E. 41st, robbed. Was left undershirt and shoes. Arrested. To tell story to judge.

Geo. Gutsmeidl, 1025 Mohawk, taken with cramps at Wilson beach. Revived in 2 hours.

Wife tipped off police that husband was playing poker at Jackson Park Club, 6312 Stony Island av. Five men arrested.

Chas. Swoboda, 3117 S. Kedvale, attacked with heart disease swimming at Diversey. Taken out dead.

Two suspected of having blown Midway gardens safe released.

Chas. Messner, 71, 7350 S. Halsted, found dead in bed.

Angelo Inalizzo, 2130 W. 35th, dead. Hit on head by negro robber. Fractured skull. Henry Findley held for murder.

Gen. Don Emiliano Chamorro, Nicaraguan minister, here to confer with manufacturers.

Phosphorus found on floor vacant building at 822 S. Wabash av., damaged $5,000 by fire. Will investigate.

Anthony Kamwicki, 2323 Franklin, painter, dead. Fell from scaffold.

Julius Levy, 1137 N. Central Park av.; John O'Connell, 4015 N. Paulina,